

70 YEARS OF SOLIDARITY

EUROPE DAY 2020

9 MAY 2020

#EuropeDay

ONLINE EVENT

10:00 - 18:00

Available on EP Live, EbS, Event Facebook page and other EP social media

Live from the hemicycle: 10:00 - 13:00

10:00	Welcome to the stay-at-home Europe Day!
10:15	Live discussion between the European Parliament President David Maria Sassoli and representatives of charity organisations
11:15	Schuman Declaration Anniversary What happened on 9 May 1950? Discover the online exhibition celebrating the 70 th anniversary of the Schuman Declaration
11:30	Live discussion on Europe's common future with Othmar Karas and Katarina Barley, Vice-Presidents in charge of Communication of the European Parliament
12:15	Video messages from European Parliament political group presidents
12:30	Discover the European Parliament Stay-at-home Hemicycle visit Join this interactive session, from wherever you are, to get a glimpse of the Hemicycle and how Members of the European Parliament work!

European Parliament

Live from home: 13:00 - 18h00

13:00	Video message from the European Parliament President David Maria Sassoli
	European solidarity Testimonials and personal stories of people from across Europe fighting together against COVID-19
	What is the EU doing in the fight against COVID-19 Discover the different ways the EU is contributing to the fight against COVID-19
	The Schuman Declaration It's been 70 years since Robert Schuman made his declaration calling for European countries to unite. What was his goal and why is it relevant to the current health crisis?
14:00	Q&A with Committee Chairs: The European Parliament's response to COVID-19 This session aims to explain what the European Parliament and the EU are doing to tackle the COVID-19 crisis
15:00	European solidarity Testimonials and personal stories of people from across Europe fighting together against COVID-19
	Music Europe Day A musical journey that unites Europe with concerts and talks with artists from different countries
	What is the EU doing in the fight against COVID-19 Discover the different ways the EU is contributing to the fight against COVID-19
16:00	Europe in 2020: 70 years after the Schuman Declaration – Panel discussion 70 years ago, the Schuman declaration was signed, laying the foundation for the European Union. When facing challenges such as the Covid-19 pandemic European solidarity is more important than ever. But who was Robert Schuman and what was his vision for Europe? What does the Schuman spirit look like in 2020, 70 years after the Schuman declaration?
17:00	European solidarity Testimonials and personal stories of people from across Europe fighting together against COVID-19
	Music Europe Day A musical journey that unites Europe with concerts and talks with artists from different countries
17:50	Europe Day in images